Segment 2: Tösens - Landeck

This intermediate segment of the Tirol Mountain Bike Safari takes you to the highest point along the entire route. Sweat it out on two uphill climbs that require a good level of fitness and take in some well-earned views of the valleys below, then hold your breath and your nerve for the 1,500 meter long downhill run. From Fliess, the route follows the historic Roman Road „Via Claudia Augusta“ which eventually brings you to Landeck. All along this last part of the trail, you will come across freestanding information panels that document the history and development of „Via Claudia Augusta“ and can add a further dimension to your mountain bike experience.

Tourdescription

From Tösens, you soar uphill in hairpins mainly on paved and gravel roads to Serfaus and further on to Fiss, to the base of Schönjochbahn Gondola. Ride the gondola atop Fisser Joch from where the trail starts to descend – the route meanders and curves its way down to Prutz through wide open alpine pastures at first, before immersing into dense forest. Down in Inntal Valley, the cycle path meanders alternately along both banks of the river before a long stretch of climbing takes you up to the village of Fliess in hairpins. From there, the trail largely shares with the historic Roman Road „Via Claudia Augusta“. This trail offers a blast of downhill singletrack, steep, fast and rocky and has some tight turns that will bring you down to the small town of Landeck, the destination end of this ride. It's a long ride, losing nearly 2,300m in height over the course of this twisting, fast flowing descent.
